MORIZ

There is a measure to all things that cannot be invented — neither in dough nor in our dealings with living things.

Every action leaves a trace: in the ground, in a creature, in a person, in a time.

What we do is ancient.
How we do it belongs to this age.

Der Zeit ihre Kost.

Viennese Heritage

Sacher, Esterhazy, Topfengolatsche, Kipferl. Recipes older than any of us. Our name comes from Moriz Nähr, the in-house photographer of the Vienna Secession around 1900 — our founder's great-grandfather.

100% vegan

Certified by the Vegan Society. No animal-derived ingredients — and no compromise.

Organic as the norm

Wherever possible, we use certified organic ingredients. Not as a marketing strategy, but out of conviction.

Handmade

Patisserie, bakery, ice-cream and chocolate manufacture, savoury dishes. All made in-house.

Food Lab

We're researching things that don't yet exist. Formulas, textures, the next culinary delight.

Fairness

With suppliers, producers, staff and guests. A prerequisite, not a strategy.

Straight Talk

Some of our products are intentionally made without gluten, soy or tree nuts. However, as everything is prepared in the same bakery, traces may be present in any product.

If you have particular sensitivities, please ask our service team.

Products marked as ‘gluten-free’ are so according to the ingredients list. Flour is present in the air throughout our bakery, so we advise caution in cases of celiac disease.

Alternatives to animal-based products are marked with the prefix ‘vegan’, abbreviated as ‘V-’ on the menu.
